PASTOR Zahrte's WEEKLY UPDATE

September 8, 2022

Outdoor
worship
bring a chair!

a message worth sharing...

Every three months, we enter a new season: winter, spring, summer, and fall. With every new season comes a unique set of characteristics, opportunities, and challenges. Our life has seasons, as well, along with its own unique set of characteristics, opportunities, and challenges. As we begin this new series on "Psalms" and learn how to navigate the different seasons of our lives, we begin by looking at how God's strength is always available and can help us in "Navigating the Difficult Season." Join us this Sunday for outdoor worship at 10:00am!

Calling those who love children, believe they should be educated, taught the good news about Jesus, and shown love of God! Children of Premiere Lutheran School in Cap Haitian, Haiti, grades PK – 9th grade are blessed by pastors, teachers, and the RRLC sponsorship program. For $250/year, you can support the education of a beautiful child of God. Visit the Mission Spotlight table in the Commons throughout Sept. and choose a child to sponsor. If you don't connect with Janet at church, text her at (440) 503-6920 or email her at janetk@cox.net. Bondye beni nu! God bless you!
